FRI·SAT·SUN SEPT 8·9·10

ANN·ARBOR·BLUES·AND·JAZZ·FESTIVAL·1972

as reported by Len Kunstadt

The time is about 4:30 pm. The day is Saturday, September 9 - the second day of the Ann Arbor Blues and Jazz Festival of 1972. The compere (MC) is none other than the well known AL SMITH of past Vee Jay fame and today, president of his own Blues On Bluesl abel. He calls MUDDY WATERS to the stage - and then festival co-producer JOHN SINCLAIR. Performer LUCILLE SPANN has just completed her blues singing segment on this afternoon show and she stays stage bound. John Sinclair reaches for the master mike and his voice booms over this expansive field.

"Lots of people here know who been attending the concerts all summer that the field has been known informally as OTIS SPANN MEMORIAL FIELD. Today we would like to formally dedicate the field and the festival itself to the memory of Otis Spann. We had a plaque made up to dedicate to give to Lucille Spann. Today I would like to read it off:

"To the people of Ann Arbor, Michigan, in recognition of the talent and genius of the late Otis Spann, the sweet Giant of the Blues, formally dedicate the Ann Arbor Blues and Jazz Festival 1972 and the ground upon which it stands to the memory of this great artist."

THE ANN ARBOR BLUES AND JAZZ FESTIVAL of 1972 (contd.)

A reverberating ovation and applause from the audience is heard. Muddy Waters solemnly comes forth and we can hear him say,

"Thank you very much Ladies and Gentlemen! One of the greatest guys that ever lived in the music field was Otis Spann. He sat aside me for 18 long years on piano. It's really nice, so glad to actually present this plaque to this young lady ... his wife, Lucille Spann. Thank you very much".

Lucille at this time is tearful, emotionally choked and sobbing, - and she answers Muddy and all present,

"I would like to say to you, you and you from the bottom of my heart. I can, I truly thank you for affording such a great honor to my one and only beloved late Otis Spann. Thank you."

The emotional impact on the audience was overwhelming. There were tears, shouts of sympathy, hurrahs, and great applause. Without doubt this Otis Spann dedication was the hiatus of the entire 3 day festival. What fine peoples feeling on the part of co-producer John Sinclair and his elite Rainbow Media staff in their championing of Otis Spann!!!

Now for the other events. First, some propitious prefatory paragraphs on how the 1972 festival came to be. Most of the facts came from the festival press releases and were confirmed by my own personal observation in many cases.

The Ann Arbor Blues & Jazz Festival '72 was conceived in the Winter of 1971 by Rainbow Multi-Media President Peter Andrews who in conjunction with business partner John Sinclair and a staff headed by Susanne Young with financial backing from Rick Dykstra made the event an actuality. Incidentally Rainbow is located in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

The last festival in 1970 (see our RR issue 109, Feb 1971) was a financial failure to the tune of upwards to 30 gs - security costs, overbooking at high salaries, and underpricing of Festival tickets. Therefore no 1971 Festival follow-through.

In the 1972 event Jazz (and mostly avant-garde) was added and name groups were incorporated into the program to give it wider popular appeal. As in 1970 the Festival site, now formally known as Otis Spann Memorial Field, is located adjacent to Huron High School.

Rainbow had arranged for the festival to be broadcast, live, in its entirety over Radio WNRZ-FM, Ann Arbor and WABX-FM, Detroit. Atlantic Records was designated the exclusive recording agent. Release(s) are forthcoming. Metro Audio of Royal Oak, Mich. with its mobile location vehicle did the taping. Also video taping took place for possible future educational TV screening. Vulcan Sound Systems of Ann Arbor took care of sound, lighting and staging; on stage production work was headed by Craig Blazier & his People's Ballroom crew. An out-door TV-screen setup showing festival acts, and during act-change intermissions, past filmed artist interviews, was a novel helpful addition.

There were literature stalls on the field where one could pick up Rainbow's own informative Ann Arbor Sun newspaper and many other publications; another stall displaying Chicago's bright blues magazine, "Living Blues". Also there were booths where politcally motivated and human rights publications could be obtained. Ann Arbor's own Salvation Records store had its own outlet where phono records by the festival performers were for the buying. Food and beverages!!! They were a-plenty. A medical tent and staff for the way-ups, mediums and downs was also handy.

According to Rainbow they received the fullest cooperation from the Ann Arbor City government. A self security force (on the site clean-up, parking lot direction and protection) known as the Psychedelic Rangers kept the local Ann Arbor police presence to a minimum.

If there is a profit from the festival Rainbow promised that it would be channeled into worthy projects to help various needy organizations.

NOW FOR THE CONCERTS ...

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1972

ca. 7 pm -

SIEGEL-SCHWALL BLUES BAND: Corky Siegel, harmonica, piano and vocal; Jim Schwall, guitar & vocal; Al Radford, bass guitar and Shelly Plotkin, drums (personnel from program book)

S. S. - Launching blues band of Festival '72. Innovative hard blues core Chicago style revivalist band.

CONTEMPORARY JAZZ QUARTET OF DETROIT: Charles Moore, trumpet and flugelhorn; Ken Cox, piano; Ron Brooks, bass; Dan Spencer, drums; Bud Spangler, percussion; Ron English, guitar. (personnel from program book).

C. J. Q. - Launching "jazz" band of Festival '72. Avant-garde impressionistic experimenters into the realm of the future. Best to call their work ultra-modern surrealistic melting pot American music.

JUNIOR WALKER & HIS ALL STARS: J. W., Sax & vocal, 2 guitars; bass guitar; organ and 2 drummers.

J. W. - one of the big drawing cards added to enhance the festival is a sax throwback to the pioneer minstrel style reedmen George McClennon, Fess Williams and Wilbur Sweatman (to name some) of 50 years ago.

Mid: ROBERT JNR. LOCKWOOD; LIGHTNIN' SLIM; BREWER PHILLIPS; JOHNNY SHINES
Bottom: AL SMITH & "Blues On Blues" display; HOUND DOG TAYLOR, BREWER PHILLIPS, TED HARVEY & FAMILY

Wonder if Junior ever heard these "funky" pioneers on disc. J. W. is a big record seller - however his freedom to roam and wonder musically in person is much better than his stereotyped record performances.

HOWLING WOLF: H. W., vocal and harmonica; Eddie Shaw from Memphis, Tenn.; tenor sax and vocal; Hubert Sumlin from Arkansas (19 year vet with HW), guitar; Detroit Jr., piano; Andrew MacMahon from Louisiana, bass guitar and S. P. Leary from Dallas, Texas, drums.

Eddie Shaw, a fine tremolo vibrato tenor sax (like the late J. T. Brown) and a lusty heavy blues shouter does the band introductions and some vocalizing before HW comes to the fore. A perennial pleaser is HW's Little Red Rooster with its melancholy background chords colored by Shaw's sax. Athletic and very competent Detroit Jr. stands up and dances while he massages the 88s. Also fine strong chords and rhythm from Messrs. Sumlin, MacMahon and Leary lay out the blues land for the Wolf to travel.

SUN RA AND HIS MYTH-SCIENCE ARKESTRA: Sun Ra, piano and synthesizer plus musicians and dancers.

"Music to imagine by" is perhaps the best way to describe the musical adventures of Sun Ra. Visual shining ornamental bizarre clothing worn by the musicians filtered into strange patterns and shadows by a light show create the mythical space trip guided by planet leader Sun Ra. The music itself is just as intriguing. I believe I hear Holst's "Planets", Raymond Scott's impressionism - and some of Fletcher Henderson and Don Redman's "avant-gardism" in his arrangements. This he reinforces with a weird assortment of sound and percussive effect. Not complete he also blends choreography (3 dancers: 2 women and 1 man) and recitation (run on queries and answers) to further his "out-of-this-world" message.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 9, 1972

Began about 12:30 pm...

HOUND DOG TAYLOR & THE HOUSE ROCKERS: Hound Dog, vocal and guitar; Brewer Phillips, bass and lead guitar; Ted Harvey, drums.

Rocking low down barrelhouse boogie woogie "bad" men! Hound Dog's bottlenecking in the tradition of Elmore & Homesick James & J. B. Hutto is rock and roll music with a vengeance. Brewer Phillips when he gets the lead is also a fine guitarist. Hound Dog got himself plenty of quips to fill in between numbers. It's not strange to hear him say "Give Me Back My Wig, Don't Let My Head get bald" or "My dog bit me, My wife Quit me, And I don't have nobody at Home, My cat sits in the window". Hound Dog got a whing-ding of a number where they jump the jump out of that old bop standard, Jumpin With Symphony Sid. H. D. also throws some C Jam Blues chords into Symphony Sid for good measure. Wonder what Hound Dog calls it?

ART ENSEMBLE OF CHICAGO: Roscoe Mitchell and Joseph Jarman, reeds; Lester Bowie, Trempt and flugelhorn; M. Favors, bass; D. Moye, drums.

Like the CJQ of Detroit they innovate modern surrealistic music forms playing an extended work so much like a symphony utilizing various motifs and movements.

MIGHTY JOE YOUNG AND HIS BAND: Mighty Joe Young, vocal and guitar; Charles Beachum, trumpet; Walter Hambrick, tenor sax; Sylvester Boines, bass guitar; Rick Wright, piano; Alvino Benson, drums. KOKO TAYLOR & LUCILLE SPANN - featured vocalists.

Al Smith takes on the MC duties and his first business of the day is to introduce the Young band. After their opening numbers which include a Watermelon Man instrumental with Joe's bluesy guitar doing honors, and still another where Joe shows off his blues vocal prowess, Al Smith introduces KOKO TAYLOR who is featured with MJY. Speaking about a gutsy vibrant blues shouting voice sanded with gravel Miss Taylor is without doubt a premium product deserving of much more exposure. This talented artist is in the direct line of the great blues women like Bessie Smith, Memphis Minnie and Victoria Spivey. Unassuming and almost shy off stage Miss Taylor is a dominant take charge heavy blues belter before an audience. She treated all of us to some of her recent hits like "What Kind Of Man Is This", "One day I'm Going To Get Lucky" - and her most popular "Wang Dang Doodle", in which she was joined by the tune's composer and Miss Taylor's personal manager, the great blues maestro, Big Willie Dixon whose brain and pen has composed some of the greatest blues of all time. Willie's basso augmented Koko's voice during the choruses. The audience which became real live with Miss Taylor were now electrified and chiming in on the Wang Dang Doodle chorus line of 'All Night Long'. Of course Koko and Willie had to do an encore of this same tune before Al Smith would bring on the next ladie of the blues.

The next lady of the blues was also the first lady of the Festival, LUCILLE SPANN, the wife of the late Otis Spann. In a short time she would be receiving the plaque formalizing the surroundings as Otis Spann Memorial Field (see the opening paragraphs of this report). However before the dedication ceremony she sang some good blues with Mighty Joe Young's band, one being a beautiful tender-hearted blues for Otis. Her throaty, emotionally choked buzzing voice reached a crescendo and then suddenly stopped as she went into recitation, "the piano was his first love and me, number 2... Otis, you know I still love you" - no doubt a revealing autobiographical condescending group of words from the widow, and something to make you think.

Following the Spann dedication ceremony the rolling stone himself, Muddy Waters, would close this very historic afternoon.

MUDDY WATERS AND HIS BLUES BAND: M. W., vocal and guitar; Marcus Johnson, alto sax; Mojo Buford, harmonica; Louis Meyers and James Madison, guitars; Pinetop Perkins, piano; Calvin Jones, bass guitar and Willie Smith, drums.

Muddy Waters whose stone has really been rolling through scores of engagements under the aegis of Willard Alexander management (just look at Billboard's band itinerary section) presented another fine showing of his great perennial blues evergreens and exciting band. Warm toned lyrical Marcus Johnson, an earlier Muddy Waters alumnus (also on MW's records), carried the reed work with his alto sax. Mojo Buford who did the preliminary announcements had a unique harmonica carrying belt which reached over his left shoulder and went down to his right hip, heavy with harmonicas. Mojo was "fully armed". Muddy Waters in a green striped short sleeve shirt and bluish green slacks looked real good and healthy.

THE ANN ARBOR BLUES AND JAZZ FESTIVAL of 1972 (Continued

His entry words, "Well! Let's give the band a nice round of applause. Well! Well!" was met with much response. He reached for his guitar, the band sounded in the background, and Muddy related the well-known tale about the "Gypsy woman, and the boy child who will make many women jump and shout - the Hoochie Koochie man" who had to be good because he was under the number 7 sign. The faithful in the audience really dug every line. On the next number Muddy let all his front line take off on the solo route after he lyricized about his "going down to the bottom and walking in the moonlight". There was very succinct biting guitar work from James PeeWee Madison - and fine runs from Louis Meyers who was the replacement for regular Sammy Lawhorn who is mending in Chicago from an accident some months ago. Other highlights were Mojo's fine harp and Pinetop's boogie woogie 88's with some excellent take off sax work in the older more vibrant tradition by Marcus Johnson. Willie Smith and Calvin Jones were the good beat.

SATURDAY EVENIN G, SEPTEMBER 9, 1972 - ca. 7 pm

LITTLE SONNY (Aaron Willis): Little Sonny, vocal and harmonica; Aaron Willis Jr. (just age 15), 1st guitar; Sam Witcher, 2nd guitar; Rod "Peanut" Chandler, bass guitar and Curtis Sharp, drums.

Little Sonny is a disciplined serious hard working blues artist. He gives you his all as he sings St. Louis Jimmy's great "Going Down Slow". His voice is a pleasing tremolo related to his namesake Sonny Boy Williamson. His harmonica is strong and diverse and he knows his instrument well.

DR. JOHN (Malcolm Rebennack) and his Night Trippers revue including two pretty chorusing hip-shaking tans Bearded Dr. John who sings, plays guitar and rock N Roll Boogie Woogie piano, beats out the bongoes, is a visual freak of the first order. He's dressed in a converted tuxedo dis-arrayed with various rags and furs. On top of his head he sports a top hat with various unidentifiable plumage. He's a sight to behold and one may say he defies the imagination. For further effect this recreated medicine man from an ancient minstrel show is a flamboyant tinsel thrower. He likes that bayou style razmataz jazz rock n roll. He's a preaching vocalist like Screamin Jay Hawkins- and he's heard Prof. Longhair's R&B. Dr. John's act is well knit and coordinated. His supporting band of organ, guitars and percussion lends him good support. His pretty vocalizing chorines keeps your eyeballs quite active. I liked his "Mama Don't Allow" - and his "Everybody Does The Mess Around" which is close shades to the 20s recordings of Perry Bradford and Ethel Waters.

PHAROAH SANDERS: P. S., tenor sax; Joe Bonner, paino; Cecil McBee, bass; L. Killian and N. Connors, percussionary.

Pharoah Sanders was the replacement for Charlie Mingus.

BOBBY "BLUE" BLAND REVUE: including Bobby "Blue" Bland (vocal and guitar); 2 trumpets, tenor sax; trombone and Dr. John on guitar.

A typical perennial Bobby Bland Revue featuring the indestructible mellow vocals of Bland himself with his "Big Band" sound in the Ray Charles groove. The inclusion of "Dr. John" further enhanced the interest of this Saturday evening audience.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON, September 10, 1972 - 12:30 pm

MOJO BOOGIE BAND: Jim Tate, harmonica and vocal; Bill Lynn, piano, guitar and kazoo; Steve Mackay, tenor sax; Greg Kennedy, bass guitar and John Scudder, drums

Good little revival blues band. Swingin' Chicago blues style interspersed with some folky blues and sugared up with some hot hokum kazoo (a la Tampa Red) make them quite versatile. Fine nimble fingered roving sax in the old tradition. Some of the goodies!: "Mojo Boogie" and "I'm Your Fool" featuring Tate's vocal and harmonica ... and from the folk-blues school, "(Take A Whiff on Me) Cocaine Blues" with an extraordinary shaped kazoo built up like Dizzy Gillespie's horn. The Mr. piano man does the kazooing.

ROBERT jr. LOCKWOOD, vocal and guitar accompanied by bass guitar and drums.

A surprise added attraction to the festival roster Robert Jr. is more than welcome. His emphatic down to earth blues vocals and facile guitar workmanship shows a bluesman of superior qualifications. Dressed informally in a purple sweater and blue jeans with a growth of whiskers under his chin his blues is just as informal as he sings "I've Got Rambling On My Mind" and Big Maceo's, "Weary Night Blues". Why don't we hear more of Robert Jr. Lockwood in print and at concerts. He's got roots and history - and from past listening he's an able technician and can play about any style on his instrument.

LUTHER ALLISON AND HIS BAND: including Allison, vocal and guitar; B. Reno, trumpet; K. Ivy and Richard Drake, saxes; organ; bass guitar and drums.

Luther has a powerhouse blues band sinewed together by his remarkable guitar virtuosity. Beautiful alto sax work by Richard Drake! Extraordinary harp bending chords by Luther! and he bottlenecks with the best of them too. One of the peaks of the entire festival was an Allison soul-full slow blues instrumental with a brilliant crescending cascade of guitar pyrotechnique. Another was Luther's own favorite "Sweet Home Chicago" where the faithful had an opportunity to hear his clear sonorous almost-pleading vocal.

SIPPIE WALLACE & BONNIE RAITT with accompaniment from sop sax/tenor sax/clarinet; piano, bass guitar and drums

It was doubtful that Sippie Wallace would appear at this festival as she has been on the comeback trail from a serious illness - but through sheer grit and determination she made the trip from Detroit to Ann Arbor with her associate Ronnie. She was to be teamed with Miss Bonnie Raitt who is in her early 20s - and has been singing a lot of blues over the last year. One of her favorite artists has been Sippie Wallace and Bonnie has featured Sippie's tunes wherever she could. So the meeting had balance. The venerated Sippie Wallace and her great admirer, Bonnie Raitt. Sippie scheduled herself to just sing gospel songs which she did with her own piano accompaniment; they being "Precious Lord" and "Amazing Grace". However there was no doubt that blues was also on her mind and Sippie followed through with "Women Be Wise" and "Gambler's Dream" with the accompanying band in the dixieland blues groove with an excellent soprano sax taking solo honors and with Bonnie's guitar laying down some good chords. Bonnie has a developing voice and is a fairly good guitarist, surprisingly good on bottlenecking. Before Sippie came on for her songs Miss Raitt completed a segment of blues - songs like Tommy Johnson's "Big Road", Sippie's own "You Got To Know How", and "Love Me Like A Man."

ARCHIE SHEPP ENSEMBLE: Shepp, reeds; Abdul Bey, tenor sax; Charles Greenless, trombone; David Burrell, piano; Jimmy Garrison, bass and Beave Harris, drums.

Shepp and group were the closest to mainstream jazz of any of the jazz groups heard at the Festival. Shepp went back to the Hawkins-Webster school and carried up to about John Coltrane.

closing the afternoon show:

FREDDIE KING: F. K., vocal and guitar, organ, piano, bass guitar and drums.

Freddie King is a powerful exhuberant blues shouter and a 'wicked' guitarist. His long solo passages are full of tempo breaks and mood changes. His accompanying band is excellent and very fast as they anticipate Freddie.

SUNDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 10, 1972 - began about 7 pm.

MILES DAVIS and band:

Arrived on the tail end of one of his performances and there was Miles Davis with his electronic wa-wa-ing, setting up as eerie a musical atmosphere as one could imagine. It was hard to believe that he was playing a trumpet. Could this be the same Miles Davis who used to play with Charlie Parker??

BOOGIE BROTHERS WITH SISTER SARAH: Steve Nardella, harmonica; John Nicholas, guitar; Sarah Brown, bass guitar and Fran Christina, drums.

Another competent young blues aggregation like the Mojo Boogie Band - except that their cup of tea is more of being a hard Chicago harmonica style blues band. They hit it real good with "Shake Your Money Maker" among others. They had the enviable distinction to accompany three of the best bluesmen BOOGIE WOOGIE RED, JOHNNY SHINES and LIGHTNIN SLIM. Boogie Woogie Red was all mellow 88s on an 'After Hours' blues. Vocally he told his story of "Wee Baby Blues". Johnny Shines spelled out some good versions of "Dust My Broom" and "Early In The Morning". Lightning Slim's vocal and guitar included a fine down home "Walkin My Little Woman"

LEO SMITH AND MARION BROWN: included L. S., Trumpet; M. B., reeds; Lester Lashley, trombone and bass and Maurice McIntyre, tenor sax.

Bells, gongs, chimes and all types of melodic trickery is imbedded in this combination's intense, subjective, impressionistic music. Their type of music would be better suited for an intimate club rather than a way out field.

* One extra added act was Henry's rapping Jane Fonda who did not sing or play but she came across quite well.

closing out the festival

ca. 11 PM OTIS RUSH AND HIS BAND including Jimmy Fast Fingers Dawkins

(Sorry! I missed Otis but I was on the rush to get ahead of the happy multitude). Heard his fine blues vocal and good band as I sped away into the night.

My resume of the three day festival could best be summed up this way. "I enjoyed myself."

By HAROLD FLAKSER

* Brian Rust's DANCE BANDS *)(a Review)(

November 2, 1972

This week I received a copy of BRIAN RUST'S THE DANCE BANDS. I have not finished reading the entire work - I've only got to p. 110 - but, from what I have read, I can state that this book contains many glaring incorrections & omissions. Firstly, to several of the inaccuracies.

ANDRE EKYAN: Brian states he played with Jack Hylton during the mid-thirties. Wrong. Ekyan was with Hylton for a short time ca., 1931, or, at latest, ca., early 1932. Have Brian checked out the monthly MELODY MAKER issues of this period.

Ph. BRUN: Brian states that Brun was with Hylton from 1929-31. This is only partly correct: Brun joined Hylton sometime between ca. Dec. 1929 & early Jan., 1930. But, I'm virtually certain that Brun remained with Hylton up until Hylton left for the States in 1935.

LEO VAUCHANT (Arnaud): Brian states that Leo was with Hylton in 1928. Again, this is only partly correct. Leo remained with Hylton until, approximately, Feb.-Mar. 1930.

BILLY ARNOLD: Brian states that Arnold went on to Paris and remained there for "several" years. Billy Arnold remained in France for a lot more than "several" years. I believe he left England for France ca. 1921, or thereabouts. He recorded for Pathe (F) ca. 1923/4. I believe about 12 sides were issued from this session. Arnold was not very active recording-wise, considering the length of time he spent in France. But, he did record again for Pathe (F) during the ca. 1930/1 period; roughly, about 8 sides, or so, having been issued. I have about 6 sides from this period, as well as 8 sides from the 1923/4 session. I also have the one Co(E) issue from the period of the very early Twenties. I believe Arnold remained in France until, very roughly, ca. 1934, or thereabout. Possibly 1935. But, Arnold did play in France for at least 12 to 14 years: which is a lot more than "several", as Brian puts it. I can do a check on Arnold's venues in France thru the pages of the French-published periodical JAZZ-TANGO-DANCING, of which I've got the 100% complete sequence from No. 1 (Oct., 1930) thru No. 84 (Jan., 1938). This periodical published thru No. 104 (Mar., 1940): but, I have only two scattered issues subsequent to Jan., 1938.

SAM WOODING: Here is, perhaps, one of the most important Negro Orchs. to have played on the Continent, England & Buenos Aires during the period from May, 1925 to Nov., 1931. Yet, there are only two passing references to the Wooding Orc. (p. 156). It is stated that Benny Goodman was the first band to play in Russia. This is the most nonsensical crock of feces that I've ever read anywhere. Firstly, as far as I've been able to ascertain the first jazz orch. to perform in the USSR was a group led by the Negro trombonist, Frank Withers - who was call ed the "king of the trombone, " This group included none other than Sidney Bechet. The Withers group first entered the USSR, roughly, ca. early 1926. Following hard upon the Withers group was the Sam Wooding Orch. which arrived in Moscow ca. Mar. 1926, including in its line-up the fabulous Tommy Ladnier. The Wooding Orch. & the accompanying Revue remained in the USSR for, very roughly, about three months, playing only in Moscow & Leningrad. This gives lie to Brian's assertion that Wooding played only in Western Europe. Moreover, the Wooding Orch. also played engagements in Vienna, Prague & Budapest (all in 1925). Furthermore, upon exiting the USSR, the Orch. played engagements in both Koenigsburg (East Prussia) & the Free City of Danzig, these latter two engagements taking place ca. June, 1926. In addition, reference is made to Wooding's Spanish tour in 1929; but, Wooding had, I'm almost certain, been in Spain during his first European tour. This was, I think, prior to the Russian tour. A brief mention is made of Wooding's presence in London during Autumn, 1926. As a matter-of-fact, before playing London, Wooding also played a one-week engagement in Birmingham. The dates of Wooding's English tour are from Oct., ca. 16th thru ca. the tale-end of Oct. Wooding left for France on ca. Nov. 2nd, 1926. Again, Brian is incorrect in stating that Wooding toured only Western Europe. During Wooding's second European tour, Wooding played engagements in both Bucharest (Roumania) & Constantinople (Turkey). This was during the period ca. Oct. to Dec. 1928.

Brian states that few American &/or British musicians were engaged in Italy during the inter-War period. Firstly, the Sam Wooding Orch. was in Italy on three separate occasions spanning the period from 1928-31. Secondly, Sid Phillips was in Italy in 1929, at which time he recorded. I have a cracked disc from this session on some oddball Italian label. Also, HERB FLEMMING was in Italy from ca. Nov., 1931 until 1932 or thereabouts. Herb recorded in Rome for an extremely rare label (PERSIC FONO-ROMA) in 1932, one of the musicians in this Orch. being English trumpeter Len Hughes. Hughes, during the late 30's led a dance-orch. in Budapest (Hungary), also recording very extensively for the Hungarian RADIOLA label ca. 1938-40. I have one of the fantastically rare Herb Flemming issues on PERSIC FONO-ROMA, one of the titles, I recall being AT YOUR COMMAND. I also have about 7 or 8 of the Hungarian RADIOLA issues, by Len Hughes. Another dance-orch. that played in Italy was that of Harry Flemming (a Negro-American dancer). Flemming had a mixed orch. comprising Italian, British & perhaps several American musicians. Somewhere, I have the complete personnel. He recorded (for Italian COLUMBIA) (in 1933) some 10 or 12 sides. I have about three of these issues. There was yet another Italian-American reedman, formerly with Rudy Vallee, who returned to Italy during the 30's, Off-hand, his name escapes me, but I believe he made some sides ca. 1932 for Gramafono (Italian HMV), with an Italian danceband.

To return to Sam Wooding: Somewhere, I have a manilla-envelope stuffed with hundreds of details of the Wooding Orch. from 1925-31. What I have striven to do here is to present some facts, admittedly off the top of my head, about some details of all of the orchs. & side-men mentioned in this letter. I can - if only I had the time - pin-down hundreds of details about these orchs. Incidentally, John, it may be of great interest to both you & Brian, to know the precise date of the break-up of the Sam Wooding Orch. This was in Brussels (Belgium), precisely on Nov. 5th, 1931.

On now to the inexcusable omissions. One of the most important dance-bands on the Continent was, unquestionably, that of Lud Gluskin. Not one - even a passing reference - is made to this extremely fine Orch. Lud recorded hundreds of sides in Paris & Berlin from ca. 1927 to about 1933. He played the smartest night-clubs, hotels & theatres in Paris, Berlin, Hamburg, Amsterdam (Carlton Hotel), etc. His recordings appeared on French PATHE, OMNIA (a PATHE subsidiary label) & SALABERT; & on German HOMOCORD, GR/POLY, TRI-ERGON, ARTIPHON & God knows on how many others.

Another important omission is that of the LEON ABBEY ORCH., which came to England, ca. Dec. 1927. Abbey remained on the Continent for about 12 years, i.e., until 1939. Other important expatriate orchs. omitted are WILLY LEWIS (Nov., 1931 - ca. Sept., 1941); FREDDY TAYLOR who played in Paris at the swank Villa d'Este on the Rue Arsene Housaye from ca. 1935-6; the great BOBBY MARTIN ORCH., which was formed, I believe, ca. late 1936. The Bobby Martin Orch. is to be seen in the French film L'ALIBI which was made ca. 1937 & which featured Eric von Stroheim, Louis Jouvet, Jany Holt & Florence Marlay.

Extremely important Continental dance-orchs. are completely omitted, too. Obscure names such as Billy Max & Tom Waltham are mentioned; but, the fabulous GREGOR & HIS GREGORIENS is mentioned only in passing (in connection with S. Grappelly). The Gregor Orch. reached its height during the 1929-31 period, during which they recorded in Paris for EDISON BELL RADIO, COLUMBIA & the obscure AEOLIAN label (ca. Dec., 1930). Everyone who was anyone played with Gregor during this period. The Gregor Orch. started to decline in 1931; but, he made a great number of recordings for French ULTRAPHONE during the 1933-34 period.

No mention at all is given to the many Danish & Swedish dance-bands of the late 20's & 30's, such as the Finnish-born H. von EICHWALD, who played in Berlin during the 1920's & recorded for TRI-ERGON. Von Eichwald recorded in Stockholm for TELEFUNKEN in Nov. 1932. Beautiful sides. No mention is made of the extremely fine ERIK TUXEN (Danish) Orch. Tuxen recorded quite extensively in Copenhagen for Danish POLYPHON from ca. Nov. 1932 thru ca. 1936 & then for Danish TONO. I could go on and on. What about the fine Australian dance-bands of the 1930's, such as DUDLEY CENTRELL?

In conclusion, I'm at a complete loss to comprehend why Brian has not mentioned any of the fantastically fabulous Argentine tipica porteño orch., i.e., the tango orchs. Mention is made of the Lecuona Cuban Boys & Barretto. If this was meant to be an Anglo-Saxon style coverage of dance-orchs., why these references? Why mention the disgusting phoney Cugat? And, the even more nauseatingly disgustingly Geraldo's Gaucho Tango Orch.? Also, AMAPOLA is adverted to as a tango!!! Why weren't the fabulous Argentinian tango orchs. included? What about the fantastic FRANCISCO CANARO who recorded more than 6000 sides between 1916-56? What about the tango pioneers in France, such as MANUEL PIZZARO & TANO GENARO (real name: Genaro Esposito), both of whom introduced the authentic tango to France in 1918. What about the famous tango orch. of BIANCO-BACHICHA (real name: Eduardo Bianco & Juan D'Ambrogio, resp.)? What of Juan Mordrez who played at the SAVOY Hotel in London in 1928, along with Elizalde & the Savoy Orpheans (R. Batten). What of the other great names: JULIO DE CARO; EDGARDO DONATO; JUAN D'ARIENZO; DONATO RACCIATTI, CARLOS DI SARLI, RODOLFO BIAGI, RAFAEL CANARO (Francisco's brother, who played in Paris at the swank LES AMBASSADEURS during the late '30's & recorded for Co (F)? Francisco Canaro played in New York's Greenwich village (in 1926) at the Club Mirador; & opened up the N. Y. Paramount in the same year. All of these are completely ignored. And, tens of others. Yet, that vomit orch. of Geraldo's Gaucho's tango Orch. is mentioned!! If Brian had wanted to mention one of the musically better American Latin orchs., he could have mentioned that of ENRIQUE MADRIGUERA.

Editor(LK)note: After a too long hiatus we welcome back the ingenious columns of the great researcher, Harold Flakser. He promises much enlightening research on his subject.

EDISONIA

COMPILED BY RAY WILE

EDISON SPECIAL PURPOSE RECORDS OR SPECIAL RECORDS

During the course of the Edison company's history many special recordings were issued. There is no general list of this material in existence at W. Orange N.J. or elsewhere. The following list was compiled from information submitted to the author; from his own collection; from label copy lists; from pressing orders and other sources at West Orange. It is not as complete as we would like it. If any reader should possess any of these recordings or have additional information would he please report it to: RAY WILE, 195-25 37th Ave., Flushing New York 11358 or Record Research.

Pressing figures vary from a low of 10 for a prize winning salesmen record to 300 for the Drury High School Band. But for most of the records we do not have figures.

1. ADVERTISING RECORD (Message concerning the new disc phonograph) (Matrix 2045) (Issued in 1913 with no label copy)

2. TUNING RECORD (Constant tone used to check the speed of the phonograph) (Matrix 3442) (First appeared in 1914 with no label copy - in later pressings regular labeling is used)

1923 to 1932

WARING'S PENNSYLVANIANS - VICTOR RECORD DISCOGRAPHY

Listings from the personal collection of R. E. M. Gottlieb, 2008 Dutton, Waco, Texas

This listing is more than just a compendium of Fred Waring's very prolific Victor output. It can serve the music researcher as a very valuable tool in tune and composer research. For those who wish to delve into the intricacy of master numbers, takes, recording locations and instrumentation beginning with Waring's 4-2-25 date may we recommend without reservation Brian Rust's brilliant compilation of the "VICTOR MASTER BOOK (Volume 2)"

NOMENCLATURE FOR WARING'S VERY FIRST DISC WHICH CAN SERVE AS A YARDSTICK FOR DEFINING THE OTHER WARING LISTINGS APPEARING HEREWITH.

- 19172 is Victor catalog number. A or B designates each side of 78 rpm coupling. "Sleep" of course is the title. Composer credit (Earl Lebieg) is in brackets. If there is a vocalist - he, she, or they will follow composer credit. Dates and they are RECORDING DATES are given ONLY for Waring listings.

Personnel of Waring's Pennsylvanians through the years

Here are pertinent facts regarding the personnel of the Pennsylvanians, from year to year.

BUD RAPSEY, a Saxaphonist, was the fifth member to be added to the organization, becoming a member in 1919.

Personnel in 1922:

Art-Horn-Sax.; Don Rapsey-Sax.; Fred C. Buck, Banjo; Fred Waring, Banjo; Nelson Keller-Trumpet; James B. Gilleland-Trombone; Tom Waring, Piano; Poley McClintock-Drums.

1923-1924: ADD: J. M. MULLEN-Bass; Elton C. Cockerill-Sax.-Clarinet; Bill Townsend-Violin; Fred Ward Campbell-Sax-Flute; Si Sharp-Sax.;

After this, there were so many changes and additions to the personnel, it would be difficult to get them right.

1938: For "VARSITY SHOW" Movie.
ADD: Gordon Goodman-Vocal soloist; Eric Siday and 2 unknown Violinists; 1 unknown Banjo; 1 unknown Trombone; 1 unknown Sax.; 2 unknown percussionists.

This is the end of the WARING story, as far as the inception of the organization is concerned, the progress made up to the 1938 period.

Modern Eyes-zing

A new RR column into the realm of modern jazz

by BOB PORTER

6. There seems to be a revival of interest in the career of Michael "Dodo" Marmarosa. There was a recent JAZZ & BLUES piece by Owen Peterson which seemed to serve the author rather than the subject. Then there was a marvellous two record set issued by Prestige (PR 24021 "Jug & Dodo") that brought forth the unissued quartet date with Gene Ammons and his own unreleased trio session. Both these sessions would be from April-May 1962. Marmarosa's own performance is vastly superior to his work on Argo 4012 and is the equal of his best playing from the 1940's. There is one further session involving Dodo that remains unissued:

Dodo Marmarosa - Bill Hardman

Hardman, tp; Marmarosa, p; Richard Evans, b; Ben Dixon, d. Chicago, 11-2-63. The tracks are: Only A Rose, Gone With The Wind, Someday and originals by Dave Burns (Automation) and Hardman (Take Home Pay, Analysis).

7. I've been doing some personal research on Jazz At The Philharmonic for about a year now. The research has consisted of checking back issues of DOWN BEAT and METRONOME as well as the exhaustive files of Marshall Stearns and George Hoefer at The Institute Of Jazz Studies. My initial motive was to learn more about Norman Granz and the JATP organization but there were some discographical questions that came up during the course of the digging. Although the first JATP recording was the King Cole/Les Paul/Illinois Jacquet jam of July 2, 1944, that was not the first session to be issued. Asch album 453 contained three 12" 78s and was reviewed in the December 1945 Metronome. HOW HIGH THE MOON and LADY BE GOOD were the tunes involved. Taking into account the date of the magazine, and making an educated guess that the records were released in August or September 1945, I think I can point to February 12, 1945 as the date of the session. Granz concerts were not as frequent in 1945 as they would become in the next few years and this seems the only time the personnel present on the records could have been assembled. Jacquet and 3/4 of the rhythm section (Garland Finney, Ulysses Livingston, Red Callender) were LA based at the time. Billie Holiday was featured at the 2/12 concert and, if memory serves, she was hanging out with Joe Guy who plays on the records. Howard McGhee was a part of Coleman Hawkins' group who recorded in LA before (Asch) and after (Capitol) the concert. Willie Smith recorded in LA with the Harry James band on February 14. Charlie Ventura and Gene Krupa were also in town, and in an LA session less than a month after the concert, the first GK trio records would be cut. If any reader can come up with an alternate date please write to me c/o Record Research. Without going into detail I would place the BELLBOY BLUES/HOW HIGH THE MOON date as October 7, 1946. Again, if any reader has information to the contrary, I'd like to hear about it.

8. The recent issue of Woody Herman material on Capitol produced an unexpected surprise with the release of THE GREAT LIE, a previously unissued Neil Hefti arrangement from July 20, 1949. Simon Korteweg in his liner notes and Alun Morgan (Jazz & Blues) and Mark Gardner (Jazz Journal) all credit the tenor solo to Gene Ammons. In truth the soloist is probably Buddy Savitt but it most certainly IS NOT Gene Ammons. Savitt is the second tenor soloist on NOT REALLY THE BLUES - a point missed by all three gentlemen. I wrote to George Hall, perhaps our foremost Woody Herman expert, and while George won't commit himself 100% to Savitt he remarks that the style is much in the manner of Savitt's NOT REALLY THE BLUES solo.

CRESCENT (cont'd) (see RR 102, 106 and 110)

-- from George Blacker, Cheshire, Conn.

8/9/71

Now, some additional Crescent data. Most of it is matrix numbers, but the coupling of 10048 differs from that advertised in the "Phonograph", an ad reproduced in "RR" 102. Here is the information discovered to date:

10001 A (S 66253-1) - "Gypsy Love Song" (Slumber On, My Little Gypsy Sweetheart) (Herbert) Arthur Burt, baritone w. orch., acc., probably derived from Pathe 20377, by Gordon McHughes

10001 B(S65651-1A)-"Little Grey Home in the West" (Lohr) - Arthur Burt, baritone w. orch acc. probably from Pathe 52006 (12") by Hugh Allen

10010 A( ) - "Second Regiment Connecticut N. G. March" (Reeves), Crescent Military Band probably from Pathe 20253 by American Republic Band (NOTE: despite careful inspection, informant could not find a master number on this side)

10010 B(S65811-1) - "U. S. Boy Scouts' Official March" (Ellsworth) - Crescent Military Band
No Pathe release of this title can be found; either it was an original Crescent recording or a retitling of some other Pathe release 10048 A(S-66356-1)-"From Me to Mandy Lee" (Lange) George Burnside, baritone w. orch. acc., prob. from Pathe 20221 by Justice Lewis (Note: the original coupling, as advertised, was to have been "She is the Sunshine of Virginia" by Charles Roberts. Had this selection been used, it would probably have come from Pathe 20099 by Gordon McHughes.

10048 B(S 66069-1) - "Oh Johnny, Oh Johnny Oh!" (Olman) Ambrose Mander, baritone w. orch. acc. prob. from Pathe 20153 by Roy Randall

10060 A(S65561-1)-"The Herd Girl's Dream" (Labitsky) Crescent Instrumental Trio (Vln., Flute & Harp) prob. from Pathe 30273 (12") by the Ackroyd Trio

10060 B(S65577-1A)-"Salut d'Amour" (Elgar) Crescent Instrumental Trio (Vln., cello and harp) This title not listed in the Pathe catalogs used for checking titles. It may have been specially recorded for Crescent, or was an unissued Pathe master.

I wish herewith to acknowledge belatedly the contributions to this work of "Record Research" and the following collectors:

Bill Bryant, Portland, Me.; Milford Fargo, Fairport, N. Y.; Johnny Frankevich, Hastings-on-Hudson, N. Y.; Oliver Graham, Westerly, R. I.; Carl Kendziora, Pound Ridge, N. Y.; Warren Kilbourne, Hightstown, N. J.; Les Zieger, Bronx, N. Y.

11/24/71

Here are two more small additions to the Crescent research project. "Tambourines and Oranges", played by Fred van Eps with piano accompaniment by Frank Banta and bearing master number S65291, issued on Crescent C10012A, is definitely dubbed from side A of Pathe 10036. I've seen the record, and the mxs. tally. Similarly, "Liberty Loan March" (mx. C 66531), issued on Crescent C10016A as by the Crescent Military Band, is definitely the same as side A of Pathe 20273 by the American Regimental Band.

Thanks to Jim Hadfield of Richville, N. Y., I can add some further data to the Crescent research begun in RR 102 et seq. He found and gave me copies of numbers C10003 and C10004. Full data as follows:

10003 A(S 65965-1)-"Samoa" (Mohr). Arthur Strong, baritone, w. orch. acc. This title was to have appeared on C10016, credited to Joseph Phillips, baritone w. Hawaiian orchestra accompaniment. Though the orchestra is not so identified here, it is definitely Hawaiian in sound, and must, therefore, be the same master as was scheduled for release on 10016; its probable source Pathe 20115, by Joseph Phillips

10003 B(S 66351-1)- "For the Freedom of the World" (Zamecnik) Edward Kendall, Baritone w. orch. acc. probably from Pathe 20224, by Willie Weston

10004 A(S 65404-1)-"Miss Sirmantha Johnson's Wedding Day" (Jackson) Collins & Harlan, vocal duet w. orch. acc. Probable source of this side: Pathe 20131, by C & H (NOTE: Mx. no. may be 66404; it was very indistinct)

10004 B(S 65664-1A) - "All I Want is a Cottage, Some Roses and You" (Harris) Campbell & Burr, vocal duet w. orch. acc. Probable source of this side: Pathe 20005, by C & B

So there you have it -- two more variant couplings. I refuse to bet that there weren't more! Can anyone doublecheck these master numbers against the Pathes in his junkpile?

I'VE HEARD THAT SONG BEFORE

This is an edited version of a letter I wrote Walt Allen regarding his letter in RR #117:

I've seen the various letters in RR pertaining to songs "based on" and I find them interesting, in that so many things you listen to, have a familiarity about them, but you can't identify them. This is a field that I would say is endless; it would take a lifetime of research, studying music and listening - a job for someone like the late Dr. Sigmund Spaeth. From my own experience in this area, I'm noting some records and a book that will give you some idea of what the whole thing is about and how it is done.

"What is Jazz?" by Leonard Bernstein, Columbia CL 919; generally quite accurate, he dissects a jazz performance and explains a popular song, with improvisation and/or variation (ignore some assinine comments he makes, they're obvious).

Inside Bebop, by Leonard Feather, Robbins 1949; pages 49-56 where he talks about chords and includes one of the first lists of tunes "based on". He covers the chords of I got rhythm, a tune that's been questioned as being father to thousands of pieces - it might well be, but it would take a heap of diggin'to find them all! Particular favorites of mine, all Woody Herman of the 40's and 50's, are: Apple Honey, Your father's moustache, Northwest Passage, Keeper of the Flame and Lemon Drop. But this is hardly scratching the surface.

As for Moten Swing and You're driving me crazy, Walt Allen is correct in saying they are not "the same tune" - since the melody of Moten Swing is not consistent with the melody of You're driving me crazy. However, the chords are consistent which makes Moten Swing a variation on You're driving me crazy. It is difficult to hear "chords" when you're listening to the melodic line or even an improvised line, so the next reference record/records are any of the:

Music Minus One LPs - accompaniment records for musicians and/or singers. These records are all of standard tunes, but without the melody line - you provide that by voice or horn. They don't make much sense until a melody is provided, either the original or one you can make up. Next are some records that specifically cover the subject of tunes "based on":

Collaboration, RCA Victor LJM 1018, Shorty Rogers and Andre Previn. The group plays six standards, then after each, Shorty or Andre write a tune (with arrangement) based on its' chords. An idea that doesn't quite jell as the tunes are not "memorable".

Double Exposures, Top Rank RS 613, Manny Albam Orch.

More Double Exposures, RCA Victor LSA 2432, Manny Albam Orch. On these, Manny Albam takes two songs, with "compatible" chord patterns and plays them together. The liner notes by Albam are especially enlightening. There are things in these albums that I never associated: Jersey Bounce/I found a million dollar baby; Undecided/This can't be love.

Pop plus Jazz equals Swing, Audio Fidelity AFSD 5978, Benny Golson Orch. Same idea as the Manny Albam lps, and even Moten Swing. You're driving me crazy is here! also some bop things.

A book could be written on this subject, there's so much to it. Whenever I see an "original" credited to a musician, I suspect it's based on some standard. But again, an arrangement or accelerated melodic line will practically submerge the original chord pattern, i. e. I got rhythm/Lemon Drop; Rachel's Dream (BG)/Three little words. Then there are simpler variations such as: The Preacher/Show me the way to go home; Winchester Cathedral/Coquette.

A record I didn't mention before, but which is pertinent to the subject is:

Mozart Piano Pieces, Angel 35069, Walter Gieseking, including twelve variations on "Twinkle, twinkle little star", which is referred to in the Leonard Bernstein "What is Jazz?"

So the whole point is: tunes "based on" are variations. If you heard the same melody at any length, there would be the problem of copyright infringement. Melodies can be copyrighted but not their harmony. It's quite a game and I'm still baffled by a lot of things I enjoy.

Regardless of what others think, it's quite obvious that One Hour by the Mound City Blue Blowers is a variation on If I could be with you!

Hope you find this of interest.

More Filling In Discographically

ENGLISH SINGERS ON ROYCROFT (see RR 117) - additional data from Richard Warren, Historical Sound Recordings, of Yale Univ. Library, New Haven, Conn.

Issue 117 of Record Research, with its usual fill of interesting material, has just arrived. Having puzzled a bit in the past about the Roycroft discs of the English Singers, I was especially interested in George Blacker's article; and since it's summer and life is less hectic than usual, I've already had a chance to go through our Roycroft discs and our info. on the Eng. Singers. Our records match the listing compiled by Mr. Blacker. In addition, an article and discography about the English Singers in RECORDED SOUND, which misses many of the alternate numbers noted by Mr. Blacker, lists two matrix numbers Mr. Blacker hasn't seen and in addition reports that most of the records have introductions spoken by Cuthbert Kelly, one of the singers.

2752 "In going to my naked bed" appeared on 152
2753 "Sing we and chant it" appeared on 151

I suspect that the announced 151 Mr. Blacker mentions in Note 4 was mx. 2753. The article (issue 20, p. 380-1) lists the following as members of the group in the Roycroft sessions: Flora Mann, Nellie Carson, Lillian Berger, Norman Stone, Norman Notley, Cuthbert Kelly.

"MORE" ROYCROFT (see RR117)
- from F. B. Hildebrand, Wellesley, Mass.

Dear Mr. Blacker:

With reference to your interesting note on the Roycroft "English Singers" recordings (RR 117), my copies yield only the following information in addition to yours:

3029: My copy is take "E"

SING IT AND CHANT IT: The original version to which you refer in your Note 4 is mx2753. The take number on my copy is barely visible, but it may be "-D".

THE HOT CLARINET ON JONES & HARE
"TWISTING THE DIALS" - Victor
- follow up info. from Herb Shultz, Kingston, N. Y.

Dear Len:

About two years ago (1970) you carried an inquiry in your fine magazine asking the source of the hot clarinet solo in "Twisting the Dials" by the Happiness Boys. I wrote you shortly thereafter to say I always understood that this excerpt came from "Goose Creek-Stomp", by Mart Britt's Orchestra. Not having a copy of the latter item, I was unable to give you positive verification.

I'm glad to advise that the conclusive proof is now at hand. I just received a copy of IAJRC Issue No. 9, which contains "Goose Creek", originally issued on Victor 21760. I played it last week and compared it carefully with my own copy of "Twisting the Dials". There is no doubt this is the source of the clarinet solo--which was speeded up from about 78 to 100 rpms by Billy Jones and Ernie Hare, no doubt so it would sound faster and hotter.

In case you're interested, I acquired my copy of "Twisting the Dials", when one of the record stores on South Pearl Street (in Albany, N. Y.) closed up early in the depression year of approximately 1933. It's a masterpiece of comedy, as you know, spoofing the early days of radio. At that time I played it for my cousin, now Dr. H. H. Shultz of Albany. He was a recent graduate of Princeton, where he took a pre-med course and spent most of his spare time listening to hot jass records. When queried, he told me that he thought the clarinet solo was from "Goose Creek". However, I was never successful in obtaining a copy of this rarity until it was re-issued on IAJRC.

The liner notes indicate that the clarinet is "probably" Tony Almerico. I can't vouch for that, but whoever played the solo was a better-than-average jazzman. The chord progressions of "Goose Creek", incidentally, are the same as "Farewell Blues".

THE MUSIC OF BLACK AMERICANS
A History - by Eileen Southern (1971)

This is a book of importance written by researcher, Eileen Southern who is an associate Prof. of Music, York College of the City Univ. of N. Y. Published by W.W. Norton & Company of New York this 552 page documentary of Blacks in the music biz written by a Black is a milestone in historic presentation. What a job as she carries the message via tedious research from 1619 to the present (1970): from music in West Africa to our present R&B. Thousands of historic facts, names, events are there. Miss Southern is a pro. This book is recommended without reservation for all who want to learn about a great American musical heritage.

BOB WILLS, RUTH ETTING, PAT BRADY, DAVE EDWARDS, ARTHUR B. CHURCH, etc. "more information" - from ace researcher Bob Healy of Colo. Springs, Colorado (July 1971)
Dear Men:

Continuing corrections to the Bob Wills story, Issues 79, 80, 81 & 82.

The unknown violin (picture pg. 3, #80) is Jimmy Tyler, later to be with Lawrence Welk.

Country Song Roundup, Dec. 1951, stated that the MGM album E 91 (Issue 82) had the following personnel: Joe Holley, Joe Ferguson, Joe Andrews, Ocie Stockard, Eldon Shamblin, Billy Briggs (sax), Bob Koefer, Skeeter Elkins, Ramona Reed & Paul McKee. Since these numbers on the album were recorded over a period of years from 1947 on, I feel that this personnel was probably the then current makeup of the band in late 1951. And if we return to the personnel listing (Issue #80) we see that the Dallas, 1951, personnel is right on! Although we do have a few mis-spellings if Country Song Roundup is correct. Paul Magee, drums should be Paul McKee. Bill Rigs, sax, should be Bill Briggs.

Luke Wills on the Victor label (issue 81) had a number of sessions as Sid Barnes, worked the piano once; Bob Bruce, on violin (later with Lawrence Welk); & Don Whiston, on piano (he was also with T Texas Tyler on 4-Star Records).

Jan. 23, 1950 MGM 10681 was taken from an air-shot broadcasting from the Trianon Ballroom, Oklahoma City, according to Jimmy Widener. Jimmy also states that he does not play the fiddle, but rather guitar and banjo. Jimmy also stated that Billy Jack Wills was on drums and not Skeets Pendergast, and Billy Bowman worked the steel guitar. Other than that, we are 100%.

Until recently, Bob has continued to record for Kapp Records, but with Nashville musicians, who also back up everybody else so hardly worth mentioning. A recent Starday Lp (SLP 469) "The Bob Wills Story" is only worth mentioning here as a warning. All titles by Bob were taken from Liberty or Longhorn issues, but no mention of the fact is given on the liner notes.

R.R. #94 "Filling in Discographically" re Ruth Etting. She is currently living in Colorado Springs, but is not listed under maiden nor married name. If anyone is interested in pursuing the matter, I believe a letter to Bill Finch c/o The Finch Bandwagon, Radio Station KVOR, Colo. Springs, Colo. might bring results, as they have interviewed her and would know where to contact her.

A daughter of Nick Lucas lives here in Colo. Springs.

Pat Brady, formerly of the Sons of Pioneers, formerly of the Roy Rogers TV series, etc. lives in Colo. Springs, having set up a dude ranch out in Black Forest. There's a cowboy band every Sat. night; horseback riding, square dancing, chuck wagon dinners, etc. Just recently he brought in on a permanent basis Dale Warren (of the Sons of the Pioneers) and his wife "Fiddlin' Kate" (formerly of Town Hall Party out in Los Angeles).

Arthur B. Church, former owner of KMBC, Kansas City, and backer/promoter of the cowboy band "The Texas Rangers" (Decca, Okeh, MGM, & Bibletone Records) lives here and I expect to interview him shortly. (Ed. note: Look for more Bob Healy fine research in a forthcoming issue).

LOUIS ARMSTRONG (see issue 112)
- letter from John S. Lewis, Arlington, Texas (Sept. '71)

The tribute to Louis in 112 was very simple in appearance and therefore most moving. I don't see how you could have improved on it, and the pictures are fascinating. I particularly liked the previously unpublished photograph of the Creole Jazz Band on p. 4. The trombonist surely must be Honore Dutrey, since he played on the record the band was advertising. I checked pictures of Dutrey in Keepnews and Grauer's book, but frankly I can't tell if the trombonist of your picture is Dutrey or not.

Speaking of the Creole Jazz Band, with Lil Hardin Armstrong's recent death apparently all the members who made the first records are now dead, unless Dutrey still is living (I don't know whatever happened to him). Ed Garland, who is still alive, joined the band about 1921 but left before the first records were made.

UNCLE JIMMY THOMPSON (see RR 80)
- from Robert Roberts, Chicago, Ill. (Sept. 1971)

I recently acquired a "45" on the MIKE label (no record number), titled "BIRTH OF THE GRAND OLE OPRY, EVA THOMPSON JONES, piano, UNCLE JIMMY THOMPSON, fiddle, first broadcast Nov. 28, 1925, Studio A, first two stars of the Opry".

This must have come from WSM, Uncle Jimmy kids with an unknown announcer about whiskey, women and the superiority of the violin over the guitar. Eva and Jimmy play an untitled quadrille, "Flying Cloud" and "Leather Breeches".

THE I.O.I. EQUIPMENT for CYLINDERS???
- problem from Lowell Schreyer, Mankato, Min.

Are any articles coming up on using the I.O.I. equipment for cylinder phonographs? I've rigged up a makeshift device to hold the Edison cartridge on my four-minute and two-minute machines, using diamond disc stylus for four-minute and Pathe stylus for 2-minute cylinders. Sound is pretty good but I get three to four skips per cylinder (4-min.) on cylinders that track perfectly with the original acoustic reproducer and I'm going bugs trying to figure out what I'm doing wrong. Heavier weight on the cartridge doesn't seem to help. Hope someone has found a successful way of doing it.

Otherwise the I.O.I. stuff works great on disc recordings.

(Editor note): I.O.I. stands for International Observatory Instruments. Geo. Blacker had quite a revealing article on their stylus in issue 103 (Jan. 1970).

MORE I.O.I. - from none other than Geo. Blacker of Cheshire, Conn. (Dec. 1970)

According to information received from International Observatory Instruments, they are now in a position to supply a new redesigned Pathe-type stylus, which costs $29.50 postpaid. This new stylus is a bi-radial shape, patterned after the "door-knob" styli used by Edison in his Model C, K, O and D cylinder reproducers. It should offer improved response and quality, especially in the higher frequencies. I would like to recommend that anyone who is ordering IOI gear now get the new Pathe stylus with his set, instead of the older model. I'm betting that its superior performance will be well worth the difference in price.

RANDY BROOKS
- info. from Don Loveday, So. Bristol, Maine (Sept. '71)

Dear Bob and Len,

We are subscribers and think your publication is tops.

Discographies and dry historical notations concerning records and bands are of great interest to us collectors, but the human side of music and those who make it has an interest and fascination as well.

I have recently read a book entitled A DOOR WILL OPEN, but Helen Pajama which tells the story of Randy Brooks and his Golden Horn.

The first half of the book was dictated to a tape machine by Randy Brooks just before his tragic death in a fire in 1967. It details his life, which began and ended in Sanford, Maine--his playing years with Thornhill, Kemp, and Les Brown--his struggle to start his own band, and his marriage to Ina Ray Hutton.

The second half of the book, equally illuminates his years of poverty and frustration, after a stroke brought his career to an abrupt end. The author of this book was his only friend during this period.

The book is very different and extremely interesting and I'll bet that once you have started it, you won't be able to put it down.

It has been privately printed by the author on borrowed money, as the last kindness that she could do for Randy.

It is available from: Helen Pajama P.O. Box 95, West End Station, Portland, Maine 04102 $5.00 PP

MA RAINEY MYSTERY BLUES CONTEST
- from Claus-Uwe Durr, Germany

Enclosed please find information from The Chicago Defender which shows that the prizes in the Ma Rainey mystery contest were actually awarded.

I seem to remember that in one of the Record Research issues one of your staff members had stated that this had never happened.

SEPT. 13, 1924, page 8 - MYSTERY SOLVED
Winners and Prizes Named in Rainey Title Contest

Paramount The famous "Ma" Rainey mystery Blues contest which was conducted for the purpose of securing a suitable title for "Ma's" best effort, has closed and the 10 winners have been decided upon. The contest has proven to be the most successful of the kind in Race record history. The following is a list of winners and prizes received as well as titles submitted by each: "Lawd. I'm Down Wid de Blues", submitted by Ella McGill, Jeffersonville, Ind., first prize, console phonograph, Roman design; "Crepe Hanging Blues", by Bertha E. Martin, Indianapolis, Ind., second prize, high grade phonograph, 48½ inches high; "Depression Blues" by Winnie T. Irving, Yazoo City, Miss., third prize, high grade phonograph 43 inches high; "Hopeless Blues" by Jennie Williams, Genesco, Ill., fourth prize, 50 Paramount-Black Swan records; "Worried Hearted Blues" (name of winner not submitted), fifth prize, 25 records; "Trouble Minded Blues" by Inez Russell, Danville, Va., sixth prize. "Water Bound Blues" by Elnora Elson Halls, Tenn., seventh prize, 5 records; "Ma Rainey's Cornet Moaning Blues" by Etta Baiden, Charlotte, N.C., eighth prize, same as seventh; "Just About Gone Blues," by Chas. Porter, Paris, Ky., ninth prize, same as above; "Rainette" by Rosetta Askley, Way, Miss., tenth prize, also as above.

REMEMBERING ANDY JACOBSON - from correspondent Wm. J. Marshall of the Meyer Davis orch. (Feb. 1970)

Andy Jacobson passed away Jan. 1970, age 71. He was a band leader from the Boston area. Andy was the saxophone artist on Jacques Renard records. He was one of the first dance stylized sax players and created what some people called a BOSTON tone. He can be heard to good advantage on a Brunswick recording (green label), "As Time Goes By" with Jacques Renard. The Selmer company featured him in their ads of the 1930s when they were trying to make a name for the instrument.

JOE PULLUM 2-25-36 record date (see Godrich-Dixon, page 568) - research from Paul A. Larson, Lakewood, N.J. (5-70)

In recent talks with Chester Boone in New York and Giles Mitchell in Houston I have been able to learn about the musicians who were on this date with Pullum. They were Chester Boone-trumpet, Melvin Martin-guitar and Reb "Parduke" Cooper. Boone also recalls that he was very much impressed with the playing of Punch Miller who he played next to in the Dee Johnson Houston based band in 1929-30 (perhaps 1928) as well as Louis who he had only heard on record at this time.

FREDDIE RICH Transcriptions for Jarman Shoes!!
- info. from Ray Hone, Pasadena, Calif.

I have a number of 16" transcription from a series produced for the Jarman Shoe Co., Nashville, Tennessee, under the title of "Friendly Five Footnotes", featuring Freddie Rich Orch., with Venuti, Lang and others. I'm not as sure of, issued for broadcast in the early months of 1932.

- from R. Beamish, Shortsville, N.Y. (Mar. '70)

I am preparing a biography-discography of WILL OSBORNE and would welcome help from RR readers who might have material: personal remembrances, clippings, etc. Particularly anxious to have band makeups.

RECORDS WITH LARGE SPINDLE HOLES!! (re: RR104)
- from Rosalind Rogoff, New Rochelle, N.Y. (Apr. '70)

In your March Issue #104, you have some very interesting information on large hole records. I just now came across a record on the UNITED RECORD label, manufactured by the United Talking Machine Co., 608 S. Dearborn St., Chicago, USA. This disc has a center hole, (and I measured it very carefully) of 1-7/16". I trimmed down a 45 rpm hole adapter to fit the hole while playing. The titles and numbers are as follows: (38643) On the Mississippi, Band, A1307 & (38644) Too Much Mustard, Band, A1307.

-more from Rodger J. Holtin, Henderson, Tenn. (Oct. '70)

In your March '70 (#104) issue on pg. 6 I read with great interest an article on discs with larger than usual spindle holes. At the end the editor notes that he has seen discs with spindle holes ONE INCH wide. Only a week or so before I left for college I ran across four records on the ARETINO RECORD label. These things have spindle holes of (are you ready?) THREE FULL INCHES IN DIAMETER!!! The labels are red with black print and are about 3/4 of an inch wide around the massive holes. The labels give about all the info. such as title and "waltz-orchestra". They were listed as being made in Chicago, Ill.

QUESTIONS!! Anybody

--first stone cast by Paul Demane,
Cortland, N.Y.

Surely, each subscriber must have some questions; to which, he would like answers. Also, shouldn't this idea supply some material for publication in each issue. These questions would have NOTHING to do with personnel, recording dates, etc. -- I'll start the ball rolling-

1--I have seen combinations of Porter Steele, Walter Melrose, A.J. Piron and Clarence Williams as having authored "High Society". Which ones are correct?
2--Adrian Rollini was reputed to have played a hot fountain pen and a goofus. Describe these instruments.
3--Two well known Jazz standards are "Sugar Foot Stomp" and "Sugar Foot Strut". To what does the "Sugar Foot" refer?
4--The tune "Coquette" seems to turn up with different combinations of authors. Carmen Lombardo, Gus Kahn, and Johnny Green. Some record labels omit Lombardo, some omit Green. Eddie Heywood's Decca lists all 3. Who are the authors?
5--Some Blue label Deccas show an "A" on the record while other copies of the same record show "AA". Inasmuch as they sound identical, what is the significance of the "A" and "AA"?
6--To what, does the song, "Wang Wang Blues" refer?
7--The only tune that William Tyers wrote, to my knowledge, was "Panama". The same is true of Bob Carleton and "Ja-Da". Who were these fellows and what other tunes (if any) did they write?
8--To what does the "Barbecue refer in the tune, "Struttin' With Some Barbecue"?
9--We've all heard the "Tishomingo Blues". Where is Tishomingo?
10--Who gave Salvatore Massaro the name of Eddie Lang and why was this name chosen?
11--Never having heard lyrics to "Dardanella", to what, does the title refer?
12--Regarding Zez Confrey: Is Zez a nickname?
13--Is Will Hudson alive? If so, what is he doing?
14--What is the significance of the song title "Shimmeshawabble"?
15--Although I have never seen it in print, I surmise that the records on the Crown label of the early 1930's were either recorded or pressed (or both) by Victor. True or false?
16--Why was Leon Berry nicknamed "Chu"?
17--Inasmuch as "Buddy" is usually a nickname, what are Buddy Rich and Buddy De Franco's correct names?
18--In the tune, "Moon River", reference is made to "my huckleberry friend". What is the meaning of "Huckleberry" in this case?
19--Dick Winfree and Phil Boutelje wrote "China Boy". Who were these "cats" and what other (if any) tunes did they pen?
20--When Joe Primrose wrote "St. James Infirmary", was he referring to an actual place? If so, where was it located?

ED. NOTE: We like Paul's idea--but we certainly hope that an avalanche of queries and answers does not submerge Record Research's editor into madness. We'll take a shot at it now.
Rules! Please make your queries short and sweet like Paul's items. Keep 'em to about 5. When providing answers please indicate what query you are answering by listing the Questionnaire and the number of the question. The editor reserves the right to use what he thinks is best- and also to discontinue the whole project if he feels he is about to drown in the flood.
